

This Week in U-M History April 29-May 5

1929

The Michigan League, “pride of Michigan women,” opened its doors May 4.

League To Hold
Public Viewing
Of New Build

DEDICATION CLIMAXES MANY OF EFFORT BY UNDERGRADU
WOMEN AND ALUMNAE

By Pierce Rosenberg

Climaxing several years of unceasing and tireless part of thousands of Michigan women, undergraduates the new Women's League building, pride of Michigan will open its doors at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to Michigan League and their out-of-town guests, containing Michigan League, and the entire student body.

Michigan League building en its doors at 2:30 o'clock an League and their out-of-an League, and the entire st

THE MICHIGAN DAILY

1942

All-American Bill Buntin, who went on to play in the NBA, was born May 5.

BENTLEY HISTORICAL LIBRARY

1953

Alumna Ida Gray Rollins, the country's first African-American dentist, who received her dentistry degree from U-M, died May 3.

U-M SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

1958

Pianist Glenn Gould made his University Musical Society debut May 4 at May Festival.

UNIVERSITY MUSICAL SOCIETY

2010

President Barack Obama addressed graduates at commencement May 1 in Michigan Stadium.

MICHIGAN PHOTOGRAPHY