

This Week in U-M History April 1-7

1916

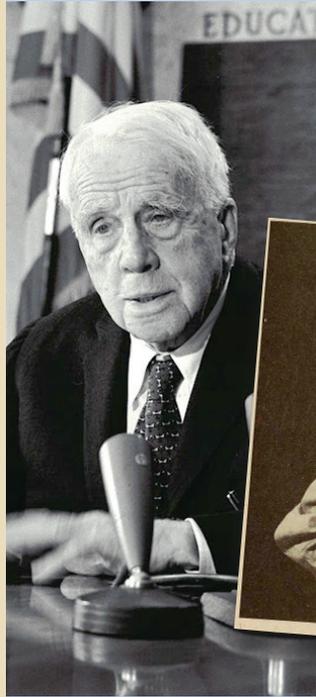

James Burrill Angell, the longest-serving president in campus history, died April 1 at age 87.

BENTLEY HISTORICAL LIBRARY

1962

Eighty-eight-year-old Robert Frost visited campus April 2 for a reading of his poems.

BENTLEY HISTORICAL LIBRARY

1978

Six thousand fans packed Hill Auditorium to hear jazz icon Ella Fitzgerald.

THE MICHIGAN DAILY

1989

The men's basketball team won its first national title April 3 by defeating Seton Hall, 80-79.

BENTLEY HISTORICAL LIBRARY

2016

Carol Hutchins became the winningest softball coach in NCAA history with an April 2 defeat of Indiana.

MICHIGAN PHOTOGRAPHY